Serial No.

Letter no. 483/Pen D) 3/6/1950 from the Accountant General returning the pension papers of Sri T. Rangaswamy, Asst Registrar of Cooperative Society with certain observations

1) Sri T. Rangaswamy is stated to have been granted an anticipatory pension of Rs 343/- Sri Rangaswamy was, during the last three years of service i.e from 13/2/47 to 12/2/1950, was Dy Comr III S.P.T. In the normal course the average emoluments of this officer would be Rs 800/- and the pension admissible would be Rs 400/-.

2) Sri Rangaswamy was promoted as S.P.T. A.C III class with effect from 22/9/46. He continued on S.P.T basis till the date of his retirement.

3) It is stated that the S.P.T emoluments drawn by this officer viz Rs 800/- from 13-2-47 to 14-10-48 have not been taken into account as they have not been drawn in clear vacancies as defined under Art 323(c) FSR, namely that he was holding the post of Dy Comr III class on S.P.T tenure in different vacancies in which other incumbents were holding superior lien

4) Statement flag 'N' in CB collection 1-46-2 and Statement flag 'S' and enclosures in CB Collection 1-49-1 are for perusal.

5) The services of Sri T. Rangaswamy were placed at the disposal the Red Cross Society while he was Asst Comr. This was in Go of 7/2/1940. During the period of his employment as Secretary of the Society he was permitted to draw his grade pay as Asst Comr plus an allowance of Rs 75/- P.M and also a fixed T.A of Rs 120/- P.M attached to the post, his salary being met from the Budget of the Medical Dept and the T.A from the funds of the Red Cross Society.

6) In the circumstances no contribution towards leave and pension appears to be recoverable in this case.

7) Sri T. Rangaswamy held the post of Dy. Comr 3rd. class on S.P.T. tenure from 13-2-47 to 14-10-48 in different vacancies and it is very difficult to say whether they are clear vacancies or not. Therefore, please examine whether he cannot be made P.P. in one of the vacancies held by his Seniors, without affecting the latter's emoluments just as in the case of Sri R. Ramachandra Rao Khambete and put up early

8) Submitted with reference to para 7 of the note. Allocation statements in Collection (1) CB 1-46, CB-1-47 and CB 1-49 are for perusal. Between 18-2-47 and 14-10-48 Sri T. Rangaswamy has been by Govt in ~~SPT~~ in different vacancies. During this period his seniors namely, Srs B.T. Kamparma, K. Md Ahmed, N. Ramaswamiah, K. Thippeswamy A.S. Khaleel, N.P. Ramanathiah and others are found to be either Dy Govt in class I P.T, or Dy Govt's in III class P.P acting in II class and the chain of arrangements does not appear to admit of interchange of tenure in favour of Sri T. Rangaswamy. ~~as stood to afford~~. His seniors who are Dy Govts in III class P.P are, it is seen, subsequently promoted as "Acting" D.G II class while Sri T. Rangaswamy continues to be D.G in class "S.P.T" in different vacancies; Consequently the interchange suggested in para 7 cannot perhaps be resorted to without affecting the emoluments of the senior officers, who, in this case, appear to be P.P in III class and acting in II class.

The S-P.T. emoluments drawn by him during this period have not been taken into account for calculating his pension as they have not been drawn in clear vacancies as defined in Art. 323 (e) M.S.R. ~~As to whether~~ At this distance of time it is not easy to say whether the vacancies against which he was made S-P.T, are clear vacancies or not. If the S-P.T. emoluments are left out his pension will be materially affected thereby.

21) His immediate senior officer who held the post of Dy. Comr. III class on a P-P. is Sri K.P. Ramanathaiya. He is an officer who has still service before him to attain the age of superannuation. His pension will not thereby be affected, if this vacancy is utilised for promoting Sri Rangaswamy as Dy. Comr., III class, P-P. By changing the tenure of appointment of Sri Ramanathaiya as Dy. Comr. III class, from "P-P" to "S-P-T" for the period from 13-2-47 to 14-10-48, his emoluments are also not likely to be affected as a result of it.

24) Mr. R.S. what is the rule, which is proposed to be changed. please note clearly. 19.9.50.

25) The proposal is to interchange the lien of officers in the cadre of Deputy Commissioners so as to permit S.P.T. allowances drawn by Sri.T.Rangaswamy, Retired Registrar of Co-operative Societies, to count towards pension. This proposal is intended to enable the officer to get a slightly higher pension than he is entitled to under the rules.

26) At the outset, I would like to state that it is not correct on principle to reverse the order of promotion made long before in accordance with the accepted rules, however, laudable the object may be. Such cases are nowadays coming up to Government, particularly in the case of Gazetted service, while the case of non-gazetted service are either not represented or even if represented, are turned down on principle. The recent case wherein such a concession has been granted is that of Sri.Ramachandra Rao Bhombore. I am not sure whether even if the liens are shifted in favour of

of Sri.T.Rangaswamy, he would be benefitted without in any way affecting the emoluments of his seniors in service. This has to be verified in the first instance by a reference to the Acctt.General. 5984

27) Coming to the rule proper, s.p.t. allowances drawn by an officer are allowed towards his pension in the following cases:-

Allowances drawn by an officer appointed ~~to an officer~~ substantively pro-tempore (a) to an office which is substantively vacant and on which no officer has a lien; or (b) to an office temporarily vacant in consequence of the absence of the permanent incumbent on leave without allowances, or on transfer to foreign service; or (c) to an office in the chain of arrangements consequent on (a) and (b).

28) Except in these cases, in no other case can the s.p.t. allowance be permitted to count towards pension. That is, to enable the s.p.t. allowance to be counted towards pension, no other person should have a superior lien on the appointment. This is based on the fundamental principle that no two persons can count service on one and the same appointment. Much less can he count the emoluments in respect of that appointment towards his pension. This is the rule here. So far as the my knowledge of the Civil Service Regulations goes, I think the same is the rule in Part A states also such as Madras and Bombay. However, I would suggest the desirability of obtaining the considered views of the Accountant General with reference to the practice and procedure prevailing in the States of Madras and Bombay.

29) Now regarding the need to modify the existing rule, the Mysore Regulations are being examined with a view to seeing how far the rules in the Civil Service Regulations can be adopted here as well. At this stage it is premature to state what exactly the final outcome of this examination would be. At any rate, our rules cannot be much more liberal than the rules in the Civil Service Regulations. Under these circumstances, I think it is not ~~xxxxxx~~ appropriate to modify the existing rules in the interval.

I am herewith enclosing the pension records received with your No.12111/CB dated 11-3-1950, after sanctioning an Anticipatory Pension of Rs.343-0-0 p.m. with the following observations for retransmission with the required particulars for proposing final pension, for the sanction of Government.

1) A pension of Rs.400/- has been proposed taking into account the pay of Rs.800/- drawn as s.p.t. III Class Deputy Commissioner.
